Investments in a Safer Future - innovative resources for the future generations

Member of the coordination team

The "Investments in a Safer Future" project was selected by NATO's Public Diplomacy Division within the call for projects entitled "Increasing Societal Resilience: Innovative Ways to Counter Disinformation and Hostile Information Activities", which aims to increase the resilience of NATO countries in the face of disinformation campaigns by:

- developing innovative educational materials adapted to the ever-changing digital environment, in a manner suitable for a young audience;
- engaging students in reaching out to other students on topics of high strategic relevance, which are the target of disinformation actions;
- improving current expertise in communicating with the next generation;
- encouraging relationships between future practitioners and experts;
- underlining the importance of the NATO-EU relationship, the enduring transatlantic bond and allied solidarity;
- informing the younger generation about NATO's role in guaranteeing stability and prosperity in the Black Sea region;
- the acquisition by students participating in the project of advanced critical skills and useful knowledge in detecting and countering propaganda, fake news and information manipulation.
